Irvine Camera Club have been looking back on another spectacular 2018.

The group's president has personally selected his favourite shots that the club has produced over the course of the year.

This is part two of the club's best photos - you can see the first batch in last week's edition.

Meetings for the club will resume in early in 2019, and budding photographers are invited to come along to meet members at Townend Community Centre, Dregghorn every Wednesday from 7pm.

Prospective members are assured of a warm and friendly welcome and some photographic inspiration, along with a cup of tea and a biscuit.
